LX CLUB MOVIES FOR APRIL 2013

Tuesday, April 9, 2013 • Argo • 1:00PM

Based on true events, “Argo” chronicles the life-or-death covert operation to rescue six Americans that unfolded behind the scenes of the Iran hostage crisis – the truth of which was unknown by the public for decades. On November 4, 1979, as the Iranian revolution reached its boiling point, militants stormed the U.S. embassy in Tehran, taking 52 Americans hostage. But, in the midst of the chaos, six Americans managed to slip away and find refuge in the home of the Canadian ambassador. Knowing it was only a matter of time before the six were found out and likely killed, a CIA “exfiltration” specialist named Tony Mendez came up with a risky plan to get them safely out of the country. The incredible plan: create a fake Hollywood movie shooting in Iran and claim that the six Americans were actually working on the film, scouting locations. This by-the-book action thriller hits all the right notes, with suspenseful just-in-the-nickof- time escape scenes. This movie stars Ben Affleck, Alan Arkin and John Goodman. It is 120 minutes in length.

Tuesday, April 23, 2013 • Anna Karenina • 1:00PM

Adapted from Leo Tolstoy’s classic novel by Academy Award-winner Tom Stoppard, set in late-19th century Russia high-society, about the aristocrat Anna Karenina who questions her life and enters into a life-changing affair with the affluent Count Vronsky. The time is 1874. Vibrant and beautiful, Anna Karenina has what any of her contemporaries would aspire to; she is the wife of Karenin, a high-ranking government official to whom she has borne a son, and her social standing in St. Petersburg could scarcely be higher. She journeys to Moscow after a letter from her philandering brother Oblonsky arrives, asking for Anna to come and help save his marriage to Dolly. En route, Anna makes the acquaintance of Countess Vronsky, who is then met at the train station by her son, the dashing cavalry officer Vronsky. When Anna is introduced to Vronsky, there is a mutual spark of instant attraction that cannot – and will not – be ignored. The Moscow household is also visited by Oblonsky’s best friend, Levin, an overly sensitive and compassionate landowner. Levin is in love with Dolly’s younger sister Kitty. Inopportunely, he proposes to Kitty but she is infatuated with Vronsky. Devastated, Levin returns to his Pokrovskoe estate and throws himself into farm work. Kitty herself is heartbroken when, at a grand ball, Vronsky only has eyes for Anna and the married woman reciprocates the younger man’s interest. Anna struggles to regain her equilibrium by rushing home to St. Petersburg, where Vronsky follows her. She attempts to resume her familial routine, but is consumed by thoughts of Vronsky. A passionate affair ensues, which scandalizes St. Petersburg society. Karenin is placed in an untenable position and is forced to give his wife an ultimatum. In attempting to attain happiness, the decisions Anna makes pierce the veneer of an image-obsessed society, reverberating with romantic and tragic consequences that dramatically change her and the lives of all around her. This movie is 129 minutes in length.

Membership Meetings: Second Friday of Every Month at LX Club In Dunwood Center 1:00 pm

President’s Message

Hopefully, by the time this newsletter gets to you, the roof at the LX Club will have been replaced, and the carpet will have been cleaned. The original plans were that the school district would replace the roof in the spring. However, because of the number and severity of the leaks, they decided to start as soon as possible. Thank you for your patience concerning the inconvenience it has caused so far, as far as the restricted parking and having our entrance temporarily closed. Once the roof is repaired, they will clean the carpet in our area.

This month, we will focus on our upcoming Rummage Sale. We do need rummage and volunteers to sign up to bring in baked goods the day of the sale. If you bring in gently used goods for the sale, we will find storage for it. Remember, we will take scarves, jewelry, and hats; however, we can’t take clothing. The money taken in from the Rummage Sale will be used to replace some of the card tables that are getting tatty looking or unstable. Edith Strouse and Marilyn Simons have graciously volunteered to be co-chairpersons. I am sure they would appreciate any help you might give them, so if you see them, ask what you can do to help.

We are going to start up the Crafts Group again. Anyone interested in quilting, knitting, embroidery, crocheting, or painting feel free to join us on the first Wednesday of each month at 9:30 am in the main room.

Paul Kintz deserves a special round of thanks for his devotion and tireless efforts to bringing the great movies to the LX Club. He not only comes in early to set up the room but also had donated the cost of the movies for over eleven years.

Paul Rosenheimer has been instrumental in helping with our December Holiday arrangements. Plans are in the works to make it a special party. Paul and his wife, Nancy, have also made a generous donation towards the March birthday cake. The LX Club would not function as well as it does without the donation of time, money, and supplies to help make our events as great as they are. So, thank you for your generosity.

See you there!

Recipe: Banana Cocoa Smoothies
(and a couple of changes to try)

Appeals to folks of all ages and is a great way to ensure you get plenty of calcium.

- 1 cup (8 ounces) fat-free yogurt
- 3/4 cup fat-free milk
- 1 medium ripe banana, frozen and cut into chunks
- 3 tablespoons sugar-free chocolate drink mix
- 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract

In a blender or food processor, combine all ingredients. Cover and process until smooth. Pour into glasses; serve immediately. Yields: 3 servings. One serving (1 cup) equals 155 calories. To change it up, leave out the banana, use frozen yogurt, and add a heaping tablespoon of malted milk powder for a malted shake, OR to change it even more, instead of banana and chocolate, add 1/2 to 1 cup of your favorite frozen berries.

Biography - Mary Mellinger

Mary Mellinger was born in Racine, Wisconsin. She moved with her family to Milwaukee because her dad, a CNWRR employee, was reassigned to the Lakefront Depot. She went to St. Roberts School in Shorewood, then Messmer High School, and graduated from Marquette University. She taught for two years in Escanaba, Michigan, then six years at Milwaukee’s Garfield School, where her husband’s mother also taught. They met because he’d pick up his mother after school, and they’d give Mary a ride home. That remarkable mother lived to be 107.

Mary married Jack in 1957, and they had three sons. She said, “In those days, at three months pregnant, you had to leave your job.” The happy couple lived in Whitefish Bay, WI for 44 years. Mary now resides in The Porticos.

She has an impressive volunteer resume’. Mary taught English as a Second Language. She was active in Christ Child, and earned their prestigious Red Shoe Award. Her hobbies include playing bridge, sheepshead, and canasta, along with reading. She also loves to travel. Mary just got back from an Alaskan cruise, and she has visited Europe several times.

Mary’s sons live in River Hills, Wisconsin; Dallas, Texas; and Tampa, Florida. She has three grandsons and a granddaughter. Mary lost a sister over 15 years ago; however, her sister’s children have adopted their Aunt Mary as an additional grandma.
